

“The Man – Wolf Blass – The Journey”

- 1952 Certificate in Viticulture and Winemaking, Chamber of Agriculture, Bad-Kreuznuch
- 1954 Diploma Oenologist, Wurzburg Wine University
- 1956 Diploma “Kellermeister” Chamber of Industry and Trade, Wurzburg Wine University
- 1961 Inaugural Diploma F.B.B.I. Wine and Spirits, British Bottlers Institute
- 1962 Associate Member, American Society of Oenologists
- 1970 Professional Member, Marketing Association Australia & New Zealand
- 1974-76 Awarded three consecutive Jimmy Watson Trophies, Melbourne Wine Show
- 1979 Awarded Len Evans Silver Chain – over 1,000 glasses of Wolf’s wines were judged by his peers to determine their high quality
- 1982 Inducted as an Honorary Baron of the Barossa
- 1985 National Marketing Award for excellence, the Australian Marketing Institute
- 1987 South Australia Great Award – for achievements in commerce
- 1987 Awarded the inaugural Qantas Cup, USA v Australia for best Cabernet Sauvignon
- 1988 The Buckingham Wine Co, New York Award for Australia’s most honoured winemaker, 1973-88 1989 Finalist in National Business Entrepreneur of the Year Award
- 1992 Acclaimed International Winemaker of the Year by the IWSC in London and awarded the Robert Mondavi Trophy
- 1996 Awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Applied Science, Charles Sturt University
- 1997 Awarded inaugural “Legend of Langhorne Creek Honour”
- 2000 Awarded the McWilliams Wines Maurice O’Shea Award, the most prestigious award in the Australian wine industry
- 2001 Queen’s Birthday Honour, Member of the Order of Australia, AM
- 2004 Appointed Vice President of the prestigious International Wine & Spirit Competition, London
- 2005 Appointed President of the International Wine & Spirit Competition and as a consequence received Life Vice President Membership
- 2006 Awarded Germany’s most prestigious honour and their Nation’s highest award, The Cross of the Order of Merit “Das Bundesverdienstkreuz”
- 2006 Australian Export Award in recognition of 2.8 million cases exported in twelve months
- 2014 Awarded the Honorary Doctor of the University of South Australia
- 2015 Dr Wolf Blass AM, BVK finalist in SA Senior of the Year Award
- 2016 Life Membership of the Winemakers’ Federation of Aust.
- 2017 Inducted into the University of South Australia’s Hetzel Group in recognition of outstanding philanthropic support.